Before Rajamantrapravina C. S. Balasundaram Iyer B.A.,

Rev: Mis. Petition No. /1929-30.

Re:- the Shandy at Hosoor, Sulekere village, Channagiri Taluk.
(Reminder Petition)

Petitioners :- (1) Mohiyuddin Khan bin Ibrahim Khan of Kerebila-chi village, Channagiri Taluk.
(2) Mahommed Jamal Sab, Chairman, Village Panchayati, Kerebilachi village.
(3) Boranna bin Boranna of Kerebilachi village.
(4) Hanumanthappa, Excise contractor, Kerebilachi.
(5) Hariya Naika of Kasipur village.
(6) Hatcha Naika, Lambani Headman, Mallapur village.
(7) Dhenya Naika, Chairman, Mallapur Tanda.
(8) Harianna, Kabyar of Kerebilachi village.

The petitioners abovenamed most respectfully beg to submit as follows :-

1. That about the year 1865 Sulekere where the biggest tank in the Shimoga District is situated was a dense jungle infested by wild beasts and man-eaters and the lands were lying mostly fallow.

2. That with a view to improve the place, the Officers of the British Commission took the trouble of taking over as many as 300 convicts all the way from the Shimoga Jail and attempted to clear the jungles there for several months.

3. That these and other attempts having failed, the -- Government realised that by their own efforts appreciable -- results results could not be achieved.

4. That it was then that the late Mr. Khedda Shama Iyengar was persuaded by Government to go over to the place and having settled down there as a landowner to use his indefatigable energy and influence to improve the place and draw over the ryots to that locality.

5. That this gentleman having settled down at the place, was able not only to induce other ryots to follow his example, but also succeeded in opening up the place and securing from Government the facility of good roads from Channagiri, Davanageri, Sasalu, Honnali, Malebennur and other places to Sulekere.

6. That at the junction of these 4 or 5 roads, Mr. Shama Iyengar started a new village called Hosoor in which he himself lived and this place commands several neighbouring villages also.

7. That after Mr. Shama Iyengar settled down at the place, the forefathers of the present petitioners also came over there and gave all needful help to Mr. Shama Iyengar and the Government in improving the locality, and finally settled down in Kerebilachi village, nearest to Sulekere Tank as it was found to be a healthy place.

8. That the village of Kerebilachi which was formerly a village of nine houses is populated now by ryots of about 500 families and about 1500 people and it is they that cultivate almost all the lands under the Sulekere tank (more than a thousand acres) and pay over 6,000 rupees Kandayam annually to Government and the village is every day being brought into more and more flourishing condition.

9. That with a view to give needful facilities to the cultivators of the lands of Sulekere, a weekly Shandy on Tuesdays was arranged at the most convenient place Hosoor and the Shandy was being held all these years there.

10. That the facility of the local medical officer visiting the place on shandy day has been all along been given also for the benefit of the Sulekere ryots.

11. That there is also a toddy vendor vending toddy on the Shandy days and he has been granted license for the year 1929-30 for that place.

12. That in spite of these above mentioned ~~in~~ ~~~~ ~~~~ conveniences of Shandy ~~at~~ being meant in particular for the Sulekere ryots ~~~~ , Some interested and design-ing people of Somalapur village who are not at all the ryots of Sulekere, desired and also manoeuvred to get the Shandy ~~~~ changed from Hosoor to Somalapur over two miles away from Hosoor and about four miles from the Sulekere Travellers Bungalow.

13. That before shifting the Shandy to the new place, the ryots of the Sulekere lands living in Kerebilachi village and for whom the Shandy was originally meant, were not at all consulted and/for three months since the Shandy at Somlapur is being held as permitted by Government, who also appear to - have forgotten the original object of this Shandy.

14. That, however, the Shandy at the old place Hosoor is being continued also, but the police and the revenue Officers have been using force and frightening away the people and merchants who have been assembling there.

15. That the place of Shandy at Hosoor is in the midst of the ryots' lands, and close to the village of Kerebilachi and it not only serves the convenience of the ryots for whom it was originally created but it is also a central place commanding the villages all round and it, in a way, commemo-rates the memory of the late Mr. Khedda Shama Iyengar, who has sacrificed all his wealth, resources and energy for the improvement of the place. Hosoor is within a distance of one

one mile from Kasipura, Hallimallapura, Mallapura Lambani Tanda, Kerekatte and other villages and within two miles or so from Arebilachi, Kamsagara, Kengapura and other -- villages and within about 4 miles from Arsinagatta, Komaranahalli, Malligenahalli, Somasettihalli, Siddapura, Ittege, Lingadahalli, Madarnaikanhalli, Ganadakatte, Guddadabenakanahalli, Navilehal, Doddagatte and other villages. Important places like Nellur, Tyavanige, Basavapatna, Santhebennur are also within 5 or 6 miles distant from Hosoor. It has also good water convenience for men and cattle and as nearest to Sulekere Travellers Bungalow, the needs of the visitors of which are being attended to by Kerebilachi people alone.

16 That after learning of the change of Shandy to Somlapur, the residents of Kerebilachi and of about 25 surrounding villages have given petitions with about 400 signatories thereto to Government on 17th September 1929 and also to the Deputy Commissioner, District Board President and other Officers.

17. That in spite of these memorials, the threats and violence of the local police and revenue officers on the Shandy days at Hosoor on the poor ryots and merchants assembling there continues and they are helpless in their hands.

18. That this sudden change of the place of the Shandy from Hosoor to Somlapur has not only put the ryots of Sulekere lands for whom it was from the beginning meant to serve, but it is tending to create bad feelings between the villagers, and it may even cause breaches of the peace in view of the ~~fact~~ violence that is already being used on persons assembling at the Hosoor Shandy and also in view of the fact that the people of Somlapur are uttering threats and ridiculing petitioners & others openly to prevent the petitions and other ryots to insist on their long existing rights.

Wherefore

Wherefore it is prayed that in view of the past memorable services rendered by the late Mr. Shama Iyengar and the ryots of Kerebilachi village to Government and their past long suffering in the midst of unhealthy locality and in view of the fact ~~for which~~ that the Hosoor Shandy was created for Sulekere ryots, appears to have been lost sight of by the new officers of the present day, Your honour as one of the oldest Officers of the state who might have been personally aware of the previous history of the Sulekere lands and the ryots as narrated above may be pleased :-

(1) to inspect the locality and ascertain the views of the Sulekere ryots in person.

(2) to cancel the order of permission to hold the Shandy at Somlapur.

(3) to order the continuance as before of the Hosoor Shandy which has existed for over half a century,

(4) and that till final orders are passed on the subject to issue an interim order to the local Officers not to molest or prevent the ryots of Sulekere lands, to assemble as per mamool on Shandy days at Hosoor and transact their business.

For which act of justice, fairplay and considerateness they shall ever pray.
